

“No one knows”

Whenever someone comes up with a new theory about when the rapture might happen, it's not uncommon for someone to say that the Bible teaches no one knows when the Lord will return, so we shouldn't be speculating about it. I'd like to take a moment to address that criticism.

The verses that people quote to defend this position can be found in two places in the Bible. Let's take a look at them:

Matthew 24:36-44: “But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.”

This passage states that no one knows the day or hour of the Lord's return. However, it's critical to understand that the Lord is not talking about the rapture! Instead He's talking about His return at the end of the tribulation.

There are a couple details that make this clear. First, this passage is a response to three questions that the disciples asked Christ. These questions can be found earlier in the chapter:

Matthew 24:1-3: “And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to show him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?”

The disciples asked three questions: when would the temple be destroyed, what sign would happen just before the Lord returned, and what would be the sign that the world was about to end? The reason they asked these questions is because they believed the destruction of the temple would be a part of the end of the world. As it turned out, they were wrong.

In response to these questions Jesus started talking about the tribulation. We know that Matthew 24 isn't talking about the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD (which is when the temple was destroyed) because of what He told the disciples to be expecting. Many of the signs He mentioned still haven't happened. For example:

1. The Abomination of Desolation

Jesus told His disciples that before He returned the “abomination of desolation” would be set up in the Holy Place of the temple:

Matthew 24:14-15: “When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:”

This is a reference to Daniel 9:26, which says:

Daniel 9:27: “And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.”

In this passage Daniel is talking about the tribulation – the last 7 years of the 490-year period that God set aside to finish Israel's sins and bring the Jews nation back to God (Daniel 9:24). The antichrist will sign a seven-year peace treaty with Israel, and in the middle of those seven years he will break the treaty and stop the sacrifices in the temple. In fact, he will go even further and install himself in the temple, declaring himself to be God:

2 Thessalonians 2:3-4: “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.”

None of these things happened in 70 AD. Israel didn't sign a seven-year peace treaty with the antichrist, and although the temple was destroyed the antichrist didn't install himself in the temple and declare to the world that he was Almighty God. That has yet to happen.

2. The Great Tribulation

Jesus said that before He returned there would be a time of “great tribulation”:

Matthew 24:21-22: “For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.”

This time of trouble was going to be the worst thing the world had ever seen. Nothing worse had ever happened before, and nothing worse would ever happen after. In fact, it was going to be so bad that if it wasn't shortened no flesh would be saved. In other words, if God didn't cut it short then every living thing in the world would die!

It should be clear that this hasn't happened either. When Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 AD it was certainly a time of great trouble for Israel. Approximately a million Jews were slaughtered. However, that wasn't the worst thing that ever happened in all of history. In fact, it wasn't even the worst event to ever happen to the Jews. During the Holocaust six million Jews were killed.

This sign hasn't happened either.

3. The Sign of the Son of Man

Immediately before Jesus returns a special sign will appear in the sky:

Matthew 24:30: “And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, ...”

This also hasn't happened yet. No one knows what the “sign of the Son of man” is, and it certainly hasn't appeared in the sky and caused all nations to mourn.

4. The Return of Christ

After all these things have happened, the Lord will return with power and great glory:

Matthew 24:30: “And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.”

This hasn't happened yet either.

5. The Gathering of the Elect

After Jesus returns He will send his angels to gather the elect. This isn't the rapture, because the rapture happens before the tribulation and doesn't involve the angels¹. This is a separate event where the nations are gathered together for judgment:

Matthew 24:21: “And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall

1 For more information on this topic see: <http://stories.cyragon.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/The-Two-Raptures.pdf> gather together his elect from the four winds, from the one end of heaven to the other.”

This hasn't happened either.

The point is that when the disciples asked Jesus what the sign of His coming would be, He told them this:

- There would be wars and rumors of wars (v6)
- There would be famines and earthquakes (v7)
- Christians would be persecuted (v9)
- There would be the abomination of desolation (v15)
- There would be the worst time of trouble the world has ever seen and will ever see (v21)
- The sign of the Son of man would appear in heaven, causing all the nations to mourn (v30)
- And then Christ would return.

Jesus spent the chapter talking about His return after the end of the seven-year tribulation. When He said in verse 36 that “of that day and hour knoweth no man”, He was talking about His coming after the tribulation. At the end of the tribulation the sign of the Son of man will appear in the sky, and at some point after that Jesus will return. The exact timing of His return is unknown. It could be hours, days, or weeks after that sign appears. There's no way to know.

The key is that Jesus wasn't talking about the rapture of the church. The church isn't even mentioned in the entire chapter! We already know that the church won't be in this world during the tribulation because we will be taken out of it before it begins². Jesus is telling those who were left behind what to expect during the tribulation and how they would know that He was about to return. This means people who use the “no one knows” verse to criticize rapture theories are mistaken because that verse isn't talking about the rapture.

2 For more information on this topic see: <http://stories.cyragon.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/Pre-Tribulation-Rapture.pdf>

This can also be seen in Mark 13:32-37. Mark 13 is almost a copy of Matthew 24 (you can read it for yourself and see what I mean). Once again, the focus of the “no man knows” statement is Christ's return at the end of the tribulation. These passages don't even mention the rapture.

In fact, when the Bible does talk about the rapture it actually says that it shouldn't catch us off-guard. For example, look at this passage:

I Thessalonians 4:13-18: “But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so we shall ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.”

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6: “But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.”

In this passage Paul is talking about the rapture. Verses 16 and 17 talk about the return of Jesus, the resurrection of the dead, the transformation of the living, and our departure to be with the Lord. With that context in mind he says in verse 3 that this event will take the world by surprise. However, he says in verse 4 that it won't take the church by surprise. Look at that verse again:

I Thessalonians 5:4: “But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.”

Paul actually says that the church should be expecting the rapture. It shouldn't catch us by surprise! In fact, in verse 6 he commands the church to be sober and watch for it.

The idea that no one knows when Christ will return so we shouldn't speculate about it is wrong for several reasons. First, when Jesus said “no one knows” He was talking about His return at the end of the tribulation, not the rapture of the church. Second, Paul commanded the church to be watching for the rapture so that it doesn't catch us off-guard³. The world will be caught off-guard but the church should see it coming.

Sadly, I think that many people in the church aren't looking for the rapture. If they even think about the return of Jesus they see it as something that will happen a very long time from now. There doesn't seem to be much expectation that it might happen quite soon. When the Lord Jesus Christ does return

3 For more information about the signs of the rapture, see: <http://stories.cyragon.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/01/PredictingTheRapture.pdf>

I believe it will take many people by surprise – even though it shouldn't.