

AGROUND

When the ship that was transporting Paul to Rome ran aground, it was unable to move. It became stuck.

- Acts 27:41: "And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves."

When the ship ran aground, the back part of the ship that was transporting Paul to Rome was broken apart by the violence of the waves.

- Acts 27:41: "And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves."

When the ship that was transporting Paul to Rome ran aground, the soldiers decided to kill the prisoners.

- Acts 27:42: "And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape."
