

UNCONDITIONAL

The covenant God made with David was unconditional. God would surely bless David's descendants, and his throne would last forever even if his offspring was wicked.

- Psalm 89:33: "Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail."

The promises that God gave to Abraham didn't involve two parties. Instead God made a unilateral and unconditional promise that He would surely bless Abraham. This promise didn't depend on any works by Abraham at all.

- Galatians 3:18, 20: "For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. ... Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one."